

Columbus Youth Football Stars place first in bowl

The Columbus Youth Football (CYF) Stars recently traveled to Stone Mountain's annual Centennial Bowl and placed first in the 9U division. The CYF Stars consist of the elite 9-year old players from the Columbus and Phenix City area.

The Centennial Bowl consists of the South's top teams. The Stars played their first game of the tournament against Central Dekalb Black, which they won 8-0. The second game ended in a 0-0 tie against a feisty Hiram Hornets team. The tie drew the Stars a match-up against the tournament's No. 1 seed, Central Dekalb Black. The Stars won 6-0 to earn a spot in the championship game against the Hiram Hornets. This time the Stars managed to win 12-6.

The offense was led by quarterback Camyen Feagins, tailback Tre' Lee and strong play by the offensive line. The defense spoke for itself, allowing only 6 points throughout the tournament. The defense was led by defensive tackle Andrew Ogletree who was virtually unblockable. Feagins was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player.
